Report of Superintendent of Schools

To the Board of Education of Danbury:

I hereby present a brief report of your schools and property. In the school property there have been only a few small changes this year. In the Center building the seats have been re-arranged, so that the pupils get the most light from the back and left side, and none from the front, whereas there was formerly a strong light from the front. The stove was moved from the middle of the room to the north-west corner, making the heating a much easier matter. In the South Danbury building the seats have been re-arranged, so that now the light is mainly from the rear and the left, and the two windows in front are covered with dark shades. From this school only has there been complaint that the room could not be properly heated through the coldest weather. In several out-buildings there have been minor repairs.

Regulations for temporary approval of school houses were adopted last May by the State Board of Education, and copies of these, signed by Frank W. Streeter, Chairman of the Board, and Ernest W. Butterfield, Commissioner of Education, were sent to all superintendents and school board chairmen. These regulations are for 1919-1920 only and no school district is to receive aid from the state until all its school buildings, in which schools are being maintained, conform to these requirements. To quote: "The ratio of window area to floor area shall be not less than one to five." Of your rooms Elmwood comes nearest to this standard, its ratio being about one to six, South Danbury having the lowest ratio, is one to fourteen, and the Center is about one to thirteen. "Floors must be in good condition, and oiled or swept with some dust-laying compound." The floors at the Center and North Road are very poor; the others are in fair condition. None are of hard wood. "Toilets must be decent and in sanitary condition. The vaults must be fly-proof and properly ventilated." At three of our houses the toilets are not connected with the school room, which is especially bad in winter and for small children. Some are not in decent condition and none are fly-proof. A good many improvements will be necessary in order that the buildings may stand inspection by the State Department.

You are fortunate in having efficient teachers with both training and experience. The schools are doing good work. So far as the parents have co operated with the teachers and the school board the results have been excellent. The greatest bar to progress is irregular attendance. Every absence or tardiness is a hindrance to the entire school, and generally the most backward pupils are the ones most often allowed to be tardy or to remain at home for an entire session.

Under our present law "The school board of every district shall provide standard elementary schools for at least thirty-six weeks in each year." It is generally hoped that the long term this winter will enable you to furnish the thirty-six weeks without continuing into July.

This has been a year of study and hard work on the part of all connected with our school system, from Chairman Streeter down to the most rural teacher. The work of school boards has been greatly increased. Professor Hetzel of our State College said the other day that after considerable investigation he had come to the conclusion that there is no educational law on the statute books of any state that is the equal of the one we have in New Hampshire. To carry this law into complete effect there must be co-operation all along the line. The success of the law will give our state a high place in the educational system of our country.

Respectfully submitted,

IDEËLLA K. FARNUM,

Superintendent of Schools.
